

Seventy three (71) ORMGA members enjoyed the annual Holiday Dinner of salad, breads, prime rib or crab cakes, veggies, potatoes, cheese cake and coffee. Tamer's staff did an excellent job in food preparation and serving promptly with a smile. Beer and wine was plentiful along with good cheer.

President Rick McCafferty recognized and congratulated members who had a hole-in-one this year: Al Bassset; Bill Bixler; Rod Femrite; Chappy Jones; Joe Coffini; Greg Lipscom; Kevin Cotter; Jack Anderson; Greg Kent; Fred Bank; Rod Peterson; Bill Johnston and himself. Our apologies to Glenn Christiansen who should have been added to the hole-in-one list to make a total of 14 for the year.

George Cassidy was recognized as the most improved player for 2011.

Rick announced the election results for the 2012 ORMGA Officers. Guy Giancarlo is our new President; Bob Hartman remains our Vice-President; Carl Schuster is our new Treasurer; and Chuck Fitzgerald remains our Secretary.

Rick thanked his fellow officer's for all their good work over the past years. He also offered a special thanks to Doug McDonald as past president who helped Rick immensely during his term.

George Cassidy expressed the thanks of the members for Rick's service and presented Rick with a monetary token of appreciation. Rick received a well deserved standing ovation.

Guy told the members he and his new team were looking forward to continue the success of ORMGA.
